

Preliminary Program iClimate AU internal workshop, May 7th and 8th 2018.

Departure Molslinien Aarhus 7.45 Am, arrival Odden 9.00 Am (Bus will be arranged, paid by iClimate)

Arrival Risø, Roskilde app. 10.00 Am

Day 1:

10.00-10.30 Coffee and bread

10.30-10.40 Introduction by Centre leader (Jørgen/Carsten) (Current Status and practical information of the workshop)

Session 1: Introduction from the four research pillars

10.40-11.00: Pillar 1 Climate Drivers (Prof. Marit-Solveig Seidenkrantz)

11.00-11.20: Pillar 2 Arctic Climate (Prof. Henrik Skov)

11.20-11.40: Pillar 3 Agriculture and Climate (Prof. Jørgen E. Olesen)

11.40-12.00: Pillar 4 Climate Services and Solutions (Senior Scientist Hans Sanderson)

12.00-13.00: Lunch at Risoe Canteen

Session 2: Learn about your Colleagues Research

13.00-17.00: Café presentations from all workshop participants. Separate program to be announced at the workshop.

17.00-17.15: Bus transfer to Roskilde Harbour

17.15-17.45: Check in at Danhostel, Roskilde Harbour

17.45 Welcome drink and dinner at Snekken Trattoria, Roskilde Harbour <http://snekken-trattoria.dk/>

Session 3: Dinner talks: Climate Research- Funding opportunities

20.00-20.30: "The role of Villum foundation in climate orientated research" by Executive Chief Scientific Officer Thomas Bjørnholm

20.30-21.00: "Strength of iClimate in relation to fundraising" by Vice-Dean for research and business collaboration, Prof. Søren Keiding

21.00-21.30: Questions and debate

22.00 Closing of the workshop day 1.

Day 2:

8.30 Bus pickup at Danhostel, Roskilde Harbour

8.45-9.00: morning coffee

Session 4: Invited international speaker

9.00-9.45: Morning lecture by Prof. Dr. Daniela Jacob, Director of the Climate Service Centre Germany (GERICS), Hamburg, Germany (TBC)

Session 5: The current, the already applied and the future projects in iClimate

9.45-9.50: Introduction to session 5 by Centre leader (Jørgen/Carsten)

9.50-11.15: Each pillar will meet in group room and the participants will map the current projects at AU-ST with relevance to iClimate and describe the applications that (funded or not funded) has been submitted in the last 12 month. The pillar will then discuss future projects – both within and across the pillars.

11.15-12.30: Presentation of the group work and creation of application groups

12.30-13.30: Lunch

13.30-15.00: Visit at DTU energy (break-out - core-group meeting)

15.00-15.15: 10 observations on iClimate by mystery shoppers

15.15-15.30: Closing of the workshop by Centre leader (Jørgen/Carsten)

15.30 Bus departure Risoe, ferry departure Odden 16.45, arrival Aarhus Harbour 18.00

AD Session 1: An introduction from each of the pillars: 15 minutes talk and 5 minutes questions for each pillar. Main focus of the talk is to give a comprehensive overview for the current and planned activity in each pillar.

AD Session 2: All workshop participants are ask to prepare 5 slides about their research in relation to iClimate and send them to an email Fredrik bjare@envs.au.dk (Student Assistant) minimum 5 days before the workshop (deadline Thursday morning May 3th)

AD: Session 3: iClimate is looking for funding possibilities – and this after dinner session will take a tour of funding possibilities.

AD: Session 4: Prof. Dr. Daniela Jacob, Director of the Climate Service Center Germany (GERICS), Hamburg, Germany. GERICS is currently the largest Climate Service Center in Europe, read more <http://www.climate-service-center.de/>

AD: Session 5: Meeting rooms and separate program of this session will be announced at the workshop

Accommodation for guest from Jutland and return bus transfer from Aarhus Harbour will be financed by iClimate.