

Preliminary Program iClimate AU internal workshop, May 7th and 8th 2018.

Departure Molslinien Aarhus 7.45, arrival Odden 9.00

Bus departure Odden 09.00, arrival at Risø, Roskilde app. 10.15

Day 1:

10.00-10.30 Coffee and bread

10.30-10.40 Introduction by Centre leader Carsten Suhr Jacobsen (Current Status and practical information of the workshop)

Session 1: Introduction from the four research pillars

10.40-11.00: Pillar 1 Climate Drivers (Prof. Marit-Solveig Seidenkrantz)

11.00-11.20: Pillar 2 Arctic Climate (Prof. Henrik Skov)

11.20-11.40: Pillar 3 Agriculture and Climate (Prof. Jørgen E. Olesen)

11.40-12.00: Pillar 4 Climate Services and Solutions (Associate Prof. Rune H. Jacobsen)

12.00-12.30: Short walk & talk and iClimate photo session

12.30-13.30: Lunch at Au Canteen

Session 2: Learn about your Colleagues Research

13.30-17.00: Café presentations from all workshop participants. Separate program to be announced at the workshop.

17.00-17.15: Bus transfer to Roskilde Harbour

17.15-17.45: Check in at Danhostel, Roskilde Harbour

17.45 Welcome drink and dinner at Snekken Trattoria, Roskilde Harbour <http://snekken-trattoria.dk/>

Session 3: Dinner talks: Climate Research- Funding opportunities

20.00-20.30: "The role of Villum foundation in climate orientated research" by Executive Chief Scientific Officer Thomas Bjørnholm

20.30-21.00: "Strength of iClimate in relation to fundraising" by Vice-Dean for research and business collaboration, Prof. Søren Keiding

21.00-21.30: Questions and debate

22.00 Closing of the workshop day 1.

Day 2:

8.30 Bus pickup at Danhostel, Roskilde Harbour

8.45-9.00: Morning coffee

Session 4: Invited international speaker

9.00-9.45: Morning lecture by Dr. Irene Fischer-Bruns, Scientist and Administrative Deputy of the Director of the Climate Service Centre Germany (GERICS), Hamburg, Germany.

Session 5: The current, the already applied and the future projects in iClimate

9.45-9.50: Introduction to session 5 by Centre leader Carsten Suhr Jacobsen

9.55-11.55: Each pillar will meet in group room and the participants will map the current projects at AU-ST with relevance to iClimate and describe the applications that (funded or not funded) has been submitted in the last 12 month. The pillar will then discuss future projects – both within and across the pillars.

12.00-12.30: Presentation of the group work and creation of application groups

12.30-13.30: Lunch

13.30-15.00: Visit at DTU energy (break-out - core-group meeting)

14.45-15.00: 10 observations on iClimate by mystery shoppers

15.00-15.15: Closing of the workshop by Centre leader Carsten Suhr Jacobsen

15.15 Bus departure Risoe, ferry departure Odden 16.45, arrival Aarhus Harbour 18.00

AD Session 1: An introduction from each of the pillars: 15 minutes talk and 5 minutes questions for each pillar. Main focus of the talk is to give a comprehensive overview for the current and planned activity in each pillar.

AD Session 2: All workshop participants are ask to prepare 5 slides about their research in relation to iClimate and send them to Fredrik bjare@envs.au.dk (Student Assistant) minimum 5 days before the workshop (deadline Thursday morning May 3th). Please write "Slides" in the topic field of the email.

AD: Session 3: iClimate is looking for funding possibilities – and this after dinner session will take a tour of funding possibilities.

AD: Session 4: Dr. Irene Fischer-Bruns, Scientist and Administrative Deputy of the Director of Climate Service Center Germany (GERICS), Hamburg, Germany. GERICS is currently the largest Climate Service Center in Europe, read more <http://www.climate-service-center.de/>

AD: Session 5: Meeting rooms and separate program of this session will be announced at the workshop